

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

GILBERT P. HYATT,

Plaintiff,

v.

JOSEPH MATAL,

Defendant.

Civil Action No. 09-1864 (RCL)

~~Proposed~~ Order

Upon consideration of the Mr. Hyatt's unopposed motion to correct the Judgment (ECF 233) and Memorandum Opinion (ECF 232) pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(a), and in the interest of justice, the Court finds that the Judgment (ECF 233) and Memorandum Opinion ECF 232) contain clerical mistakes with respect to claims 138 and 195. It is hereby

ORDERED that Motion is GRANTED; and it is further

ORDERED that page 2 of Judgment (ECF 233) is amended nunc pro tunc as follows: claims 138 and 195 are hereby deleted from the list of "the remaining claims that are at issue . . . are DENIED."; and it is further ORDERED that page 42 of the Memorandum Opinion (ECF 232) is amended nunc pro tunc as follows: in Section IV (2) b., with respect to Mr. Hyatt's '398 application, claims 138 and 195 are hereby deleted from the list claims that "will be denied."

SO ORDERED.

Dated: August 28, 2018

Royce C. Lamberth
United States District Judge
