

Diane Lettelleir, Senior Managing Counsel for J. C. Penney Corporation, Inc., is responsible for all patent litigation involving the company. Since joining JCPenney, Diane has handled more than 50 patent disputes involving NPEs. Diane joined JCPenney in 2010 after more than 25 years in private practice focused on intellectual property litigation and portfolio management. While in private practice, Diane represented clients that were patent owners asserting patents against competitors, defendants accused of infringement by competitors, as well as clients accused of infringement by NPEs.